

You'll Never Believe What Happened Today! Preventing and Managing Behavior Problems on Your School Bus with Polly Bath

Congratulations are due to all bus drivers – those heroes and heroines in charge of moving 'classrooms' who operate dangerous machinery while their backs are turned to their audience!

This lively workshop is full of practical advice and Polly's usual humor.

Content will include:

1. The POWER of consistency in improving the behavior of kids:
 - a. consistent expectations
 - b. consistent procedures
 - c. consistent enforcement of rules
2. The vital importance of using a 'common language' to describe rules and respond to infractions
3. How to build relationships with kids that will positively impact their behaviors
4. Avoiding and preventing power struggles with children – you will never win!!!
5. How not to take poor behavior personally!
6. Understanding WHY kids do what they do, and letting that influence your behavior management in a productive way
7. Managing yourself when kids get under your skin, make your teeth itch, and pluck your last nerve!!!

To bus drivers, we say this: we hope you like kids. If you do, you will have fewer behavior problems! And this workshop will help you with those that remain!

Target Audience: School bus drivers for general and special education students, PreK-12.
